TALK AND WALK

“Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.” (I Timothy 4:12).

“But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry” (II Timothy 3:5).

“The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; neither as being lords over God’s heritage, but being ensamples to the flock” (I Peter 5:1-3).

Someone said that, “our actions speak louder than our words. The beauty of our Lord Jesus Christ was he walked as he talked. His words were matching his actions rather his deeds. And how important it is for Christians who bears the name of Jesus Christ to walk as they talk! Jesus Christ alone is our model!

And Paul exhorts Timothy the same thing. We are exhorted in today’s Scripture that, “we should be an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.” We are also exhorted to “make full proof of our ministry” which is entrusted by our good Lord to us.

Peter goes little further and exhorts us, “that we need to be ensamples of the flock in our words and in our deeds.” And we should be careful to watch that our words and our deeds match perfectly.

But how sad it is to see sometimes we are not careful. We think that our God-given duty is to talk, preach, teach but not to practice what we preach or teach. We think that it is the duty of them to whom we preach and teach and not ours.

Is not that true that the Word of God is lamp unto our feet and light unto our path? Is it not that we are the light of the world and we cannot hide ourselves under the hypocrisy! Is it not true that we should walk in the light as He is in the light? Yes, we must!

It pleases our Lord most to see that we walk in the truth. Walking in the truth is matching our word with our actions, our talk and walk must match.

It is high time for us who call upon His name, who claim to be the ministers of Almighty God to check ourselves whether our talk matches our walk.

May our good Lord continue to showers His abundant blessings upon you and your family. Prema and I love you so dearly and pray for you daily. Write us for we love to hear from you!
